

HOME HEALTH PUBLICLY REPORTED MEASURES (Source: OBQI Reports)

Please note: Data presented in the last issue of Quality Source was incorrect, and we are presenting the corrected data from July 1, 2006 to June 30, 2007.

July 1, 2006 to June 30, 2007

December 1, 2006 to November 30, 2007

	National Average	State Average	TN Current Ranking	Change Since Last Quarter	National Average	State Average	TN Current Ranking	Change Since Last Quarter
Improvement in Ambulation/Locomotion	42.43%	47.89%	2	NC	43.20%	48.44%	4	↓ -2
Improvement in Transferring	53.56%	55.77%	14	↑ +2	53.58%	55.53%	17	↓ -3
Improvement in Pain Interfering with Activity	63.81%	62.88%	26	NC	63.96%	63.43%	21	↑ +5
Improvement in Urinary Incontinence	50.30%	48.48%	34	↑ +4	49.94%	50.08%	22	↑ +12
Improvement in Bathing	64.35%	67.91%	7	↑ +5	64.65%	68.66%	5	↑ +2
Improvement in Management of Oral Meds	42.54%	44.59%	13	NC	42.87%	45.16%	13	NC
Improvement in Dyspnea	61.36%	60.28%	39	↑ +4	61.34%	60.66%	37	↑ +2
Discharged to Community	68.01%	64.93%	46	NC	68.15%	65.09%	46	NC
Acute Care Hospitalization	28.49%	32.47%	47	NC	28.37%	32.31%	46	↑ +1
Any Emergent Care	21.34%	24.11%	46	NC	21.26%	23.84%	43	↑ +3

Please note: The Acute Care Hospitalization and Any Emergent Care quality measures should be lower than the national average to be considered better. All other measures should be higher than the national average to be considered better.

The red and green arrows represent if Tennessee has changed in rank and by how many places from the previous publicly reported quarter.

If you have questions about the quality measures, please contact the QSource Home Health team at 800.528.2655 ext. 2638.

To see how your home health agency compares to state and national rates, please visit Home Health Compare at www.medicare.gov.

